AN APPALLING RAILROAD WRECK

BALTIMORE AND OHIO PASSENGER TRAIN MEETS WITH A TERRIBLE DISASTER.

SIXTY-THREE ARE KILLED

And Thirty Injured—Train Derailed and Passengers Scalded by Steam. Nearly All Killed Riding in Smoker, and Balance of Passengers Escape.

Connellsville, Pa., Dec. 23.—A disastrous passenger wreck occurred on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, eight miles west of here tonight, and at least sixty-three people were killed and twenty or thirty badly hurt.

The wrecked train was known as No. 12, eastbound, and was composed of the engine, combination baggage and smoker, two coaches, two Pullmans and a diner.

The official statement of Supt. W. C. Loree is as follows:

"No. 12 was derailed by running into some switch timbers or timbers of about that size, derailing the engine and all the cars. All of the cars are badly damaged. Do not think any of the equipment will be able to go away from the scene of the accident on their own wheels except possibly the Pullman cars and the diner. The engine lies across both of the tracks. The baggage car is over the bank. The first coach is partly over the bank. The balance of the train is badly twisted. I judge thirty-five people are killed. All people killed were in the smoker. Escaping steam from the engine went into the first coach, scalding the people. Very few passengers in other portions of the train were injured. The injured have been taken from the wreck and placed on the bank. The engineer and fireman can not be found."

Details are lacking, but it is understood as the passenger was passing a freight, some broken timbers fell from a car directly in front of passenger throwing the engine from the track, and derailing balance of the train.

Among the dead are:

Engineer William Thorpy, of Hazlewood, Pa.
Division Engineer S. G. Heater, of Hazlewood, Pa.
Fireman Thomas Cook, of Hazlewood, Pa.
Herbert Holmes, of Emlenton, Pa.
Jesse Hanes, Tarboro, N. C., news agent.
Charles Linford, Confluence, Pa.
—Edwards Pittsburg, wife in Cumberland.
J. W. Martin, Hancock, Md.
Richard Duckett, Baltimore.
Edison Goldsmith, Connellsville, Pa.

Other fifty-three dead are mostly foreigners and negroes who were riding in the smoking car. Work of their identification has not yet begun.

AND HERE'S ANOTHER.

Louisville and Nashville Adds to Railroad Wreck.

The Mormons Everywhere Celebrate the Birthday of Joseph Smith

THE OFFICIAL HOLIDAY OF THE MORMON CHURCH — ALL-DAY SERVICE TODAY IN THE TABERNACLE, AND A MUSICAL PROGRAM ON AN ELABORATE SCALE — CORRESPONDENTS WITH CHRISTIAN CHRISTMAS.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Dec. 23.—Among the Mormons everywhere were held today celebrations which might be compared to the Christmas celebration of Christendom. This is Joseph Smith's birthday anniversary, and the observance of it and of Brigham Young's birthday are official holidays of the Mormon church.

In the evening interesting exercises are held at all of the meeting houses of the faith, differing little from the customary Christmas celebrations. The program consists of music and of discourses on Joseph Smith, his life and works. The story is told of his birth in 1805 in a lowly farm house among the mountains of Vermont, his alleged discovery of the sacred plates, and his subsequent "revelations," the story of his subsequent career, in which he founded the Mormon religion and his tragic death in Illinois. At the tabernacle today all day exercises were held with addresses by a number of prominent speakers. The musical service, which was on an elaborate scale, was a chief feature of the program.

District Attorney After Big Builders

CHARGE OF CONSPIRACY TO WRECK RIVALS.

If Facts Are Borne Out, Wholesale Indictments Will Occur—Walking Delegate Farley Confesses and Implicates Many Large Firms.

New York, Dec. 23.—The grand jury will be called upon within a few days to start a searching inquiry into charges that have been filed with District Attorney Crome against some of the most prominent builders and contractors in the city. If the facts alleged are borne out it is expected that wholesale indictments will be handed down shortly. The charges made to Mr. Jerome are that certain builders and contractors whose names are known, conspired with certain walking delegates to have strikes declared on jobs where rival firms had their men employed. Conspiracy will be the charge in every case mentioned.

Henry Farley, the walking delegate of the painters' union, who a few days ago pleaded guilty to perjury, and who is now serving a year's sentence in Sing Sing, has made a confession to the District Attorney, it is said.

Just what Farley had confessed, what names he has mentioned, are not made public. During the last week a large number of men have been examined by the district attorney and his assistants under oath about this practice. It is openly charged that these builders and contractors went to several walking delegates in this city and asked them to call strikes on rival jobs. The fact that union men were employed on these rival jobs and also that the workmen had absolutely no grievances never entered into consideration.

Little Japan Has Nerve With Her

WAR BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE BROWNIES LOOKS CERTAIN.

Japanese Will Not Concede More Than They Have—And Before Going Any Further Will Fight for Her Interests Unless Russia Weakens.

Peking, Dec. 23.—The optimistic feeling in some quarters concerning war between Japan and Russia are not shared by diplomats at Peking whose knowledge of the present situation of affairs entitles their opinions to the highest consideration. It is positively known that the Japanese Government has drawn a line for settlement beyond which it will not make any material concessions, and that she is determined to fight before yielding what she considers to be her vital interests. It is believed that unless Russia concedes important points another exchange of notes will precipitate matters.

The Crane Company Presents Quarter Million to Employees

THE LARGEST CHRISTMAS GIFT EVER MADE BY AN AMERICAN CONCERN TO ITS WORKERS—TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS WERE DISTRIBUTED AMONG FIVE THOUSAND WORKMEN BY FIRM.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 23.—The Crane company, manufacturers of elevators, today began the distribution of probably the largest Christmas gift ever made by an American concern to the workers in its employ. The aggregate amounted to $250,000 and was distributed among 5,000 toilers. Included among the recipients were about 500 men and women, not now in the employ of the company, but who were at the beginning of the year laid off for one reason or another. The money was distributed on the ratio of time worked during the year and averaged about 5 per cent of the yearly wage. The amount distributed this year was considerably in excess of that of any previous year, partly because the company has about 1,000 more employed than it had a year ago, and partly because of the unusually prosperous conditions that have prevailed.—The Crane Company has branch offices in most of the principal cities on the Pacific coast, distributing house being in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland and Seattle.

DEAD WILL HAVE TO BURY THE DEAD

Chicago, Dec. 23.—The struggle between the Liverymen and Undertakers' Association and the Livery Drivers' Union, which for the past six days has seriously interfered with the burial of Chicago's dead, as no horses or carriages have been available for funerals, is to be a fight to a finish, all efforts looking to a settlement of the strike by conciliation having been abandoned tonight. For past two days the prospects for settlement by arbitration has seemed bright, but today the contending parties drifted farther apart than ever, and all peace negotiations have been declared off by the employers.

Mrs. Graves' charred body was found last Friday. The couple have not been on good terms, and divorce proceedings had been instituted. Graves is now in jail.

Heinze's Action is Held To be Next to Anarchy.

MONTANA U. S. COURT SCORES A MOVE IN COPPER WAR—FINES HEINZE $2,000 FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT—TOOK BAD ADVICE OF ATTORNEY, EVIDENTLY, AND THEREBY HE GOT INTO TROUBLE.

Helena, Mont., Dec. 23.—The actions of F. Augustus Heinze and two of his mining engineers were declared to be akin to anarchy in a decision handed down by Judge Beatty in the United States Court today in the copper war. Heinze was fined $2,000 for contempt of court, and J. H. Terrez, of the Montana Ore Purchasing Company, and Albert Frank, of the Johnstown Mining Company, $500 each for the same offense. The court further declared that they had not acted in good faith. The contempt was in refusing to obey an order made twice by Judge Knowles, giving the Montana and Boston Mining Company representatives permission to examine and survey the underground workings of the Michael Davitt mine through the Rarus mine.

owned by Heinze. It was charged that Heinze and his company had been trespassing secretly on the Michael Davitt ore bodies. Judge Beatty, however, held the order in abeyance, and said he would remit them, providing the original order was complied with within the next week or a date to be set by the O'Brien and Montana company. Heinze made the defense that he had acted on the advice of his attorneys, and that after the order of Judge Knowles had been entered he had transferred the Rarus mine to the Johnstown Mining company, thus losing his interest in it. Judge Beatty said that in his experience he had never heard of an attorney advising his client to disobey a court.

The Disappearance of Bean Explained

WAS WANTED IN INDIAN TERRITORY FOR CATTLE STEALING.

Kidnaped by Officers and Spirited Away—Man Had Been Working Near Douglas.

The mystery of the disappearance of the man Bean has at last been cleared up. He was not murdered as was at first thought, but kidnaped. The rancher for whom Bean was working received a letter from him which tells the whole story. Bean was wanted in Indian Territory for cattle stealing. Officers in the Territory found out where he was located and came down here after him. They found him in town with a team and wagon and followed him out towards the cattle pens. Here they arrested him and took him in charge. He was spirited away by the officers and taken back to New Mexico. When he was arrested he was given a few minutes time to prepare himself for his little journey; while he was doing this he wrote a note and left it in the wagon. The note said, "They have got me." The team was found wandering around the next morning, and the note was found in the wagon. At first there were all kinds of stories and theories accounting for Bean's disappearance. Many thought that he had been the victim of murderers, others that he had left the country to escape punishment for some crime, but as it came out no one ever guessed the real cause of Bean's sudden leaving of Arizona.

Colorado Strikers Lose Their Fight

MORE MEN SEEKING WORK THAN CAN BE EMPLOYED.

Worse Setback Was When President Moyer Was Led Out of Town Threatened With Vagrancy—Miners Likely to Bolt at Any Minute.

Denver, Dec. 23.—All indications are that the striking miners have lost their fight in Colorado, both in the gold and silver and in the coal fields. The strike atmosphere is clearing daily, and it is believed that the military campaign of the state authorities has resulted in a complete defeat for the unions.

There are more men seeking work than there is employment for. Governor Peabody has ordered a general reduction of the militia forces at Telluride and Cripple Creek, owing to the fact that the non-union men are in the majority in these districts, and are believed to be simply able to take care of themselves. Several mines and mills are running to their full capacity.

In the Southern Colorado coal mines there is a growing dissatisfaction over the long drawn-out fight, and it is probable that the Italian miners will resume in a body next week.

The district has been heavily colonized with Japanese, who are proving capable and tractable workmen, and the strikers see that their positions are growing more precarious each day. An effort of the organizers to secure a renewal of the strike agreement failed last night, and a bolt is Every guest expressed themselves as more than pleased with the entertainment. Mr. Nobles is obtaining a strong reputation as the leading caterer of the city.
